New Orieans Market.

NEW ORLEANS, January 5.—Corron.—The market opened with a limited inquiry, and has continued quiet throughout the day. There was a fair assortment on sale, and factors exhibited increased anxiety to realize, but steadily refused to modify their pretensions; while buyers, in view of the unfavorable tenor of the advices from Liverpool and New York, were evidently indisposed to oparate unless at concessions. Hence the sales were of a very restricted character, comrrising at the close barely 2700 bales, taken by thirteen brokers, at prices indicating no material change as to Low Middling and Middling, but a decidedly better feeling as to Ordinary and Good Ordinary, the latter on account of the extreme scarcity of these descriptions. Referring to the above remarks, we quote as follows; Ordinary 28a29c; Good Ordinary 30a31c; Low Middling 31½a32%c, and Middling 33%c.

STATEMENT OF COTTON.
